The Robert Schuman Foundation at the Heart of Europe

The Robert Schuman Foundation that was founded in 1991 after the fall of the Berlin Wall has been acknowledged by the State for its services to the public; it is a reference research centre on the European Union and its policies. It encourages, contributes to and stimulates European debate thanks to the wealth of its research, publications and the events that it organises. It provides real help to decision makers. The Robert Schuman Foundation is established in Paris and Brussels and has a network of correspondants across Europe.

The Foundation, as a think tank, writes and publishes many studies on European policies which are a precious source of information and support in decision making. They are available on the Foundation's website www.robert-schuman.eu

in English and French, which is considered as online press.

The weekly electronic newsletter, addressed in 6 languages (French, English, German, Spanish, Polish and Ukrainian), is a unique source of information on European events. It is the leading European online newsletter. "Schuman Papers", the Foundation's policy papers that are distributed with the weekly Letter, explore in greater depth a specific issue linked to topical events.

The European Elections Monitor, available in French and in English, is a unique electronic publication and presents a real time analysis of the stakes and results of each election in the Member States.

"The State of the Union, the Schuman Report on Europe", an annual reference document on Europe, provides a unique study of mainly European issues together with exclusive statistic data and informative maps.

"The EU Atlas" which is permanently updated on the internet, presents the EU, its Member States, its overseas territories and the euro area. Is also available in English.

contributing to debate

The Foundation's independence allows it to address all topical European issues in depth and objectively. Its studies provide European decision makers with information, arguments and ideas which are appreciated for their concrete applicability and scientific quality.

VIA RESEARCH...

The Foundation lends a European dimension to all the main issues of public interest via its original research.

AND WORK IN THE FIELD...

The Foundation organises and participates in numerous European and international meetings and conferences, develops research programmes in co-operation with university centres and think-tanks. Through the "Schuman Network", the Foundation is developing a European network of think-tanks and research laboratories and encouraging the promotion and sharing of ideas on a European scale. The Foundation's presence in Brussels and its network of partners in the Member States facilitate its provision of venues for discussion, to exchange on and debate the future of Europe. Its experts take part in more than 60 events a year.

The Foundation has increased its initiatives to promote the European democratic model by supporting the best initiatives from the academic world and civil society.

TRAINING YOUNG DECISION MAKERS

Training sessions are organised for young European decision makers who want to improve their knowledge of Europe.
